Abuse of Minors Pastoral Response Hotline
405-720-9878

For the safety of children and the healing of victims, the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City provides an Abuse of Minors Pastoral Response Hotline for reporting the abuse of a minor (in the past or presently) by a member of the clergy or other church personnel. Calls to this number will be answered by the Archdiocesan Assistance coordinator who will offer to meet with the caller in person, if the caller so desires. The Assistance Coordinator will also assist you in making a formal complaint to the Archdiocese, arranging a personal meeting with the Archbishop or his representative and in obtaining support and pastoral counseling.

Calls are confidential with the following exceptions:

- * Any allegation of sexual or physical abuse or neglect concerning those who currently are minors must be reported to the Oklahoma Dept. of Human Services 1-800-522-3511 as required by Oklahoma laws and Archdiocesan policies.

- * Any allegation of sexual misconduct must be shared with the proper Archdiocesan authorities.

- * Local law enforcement agencies may also be contacted.

In addition, there are several things you may do:

- * Contact the Oklahoma Dept. of Human Services 1-800-522-3511. Contacting DHS is mandatory if the victim is a minor.

- * Contact the appropriate law enforcement agency (for example the local police).

- * Contact local child protection agencies, a private attorney, &/or a support group.

ASCENSION - Ascension does not mean Jesus is gone. Indeed, the Communion antiphon today echoes the Gospel: "I, the Lord, am with you always, until the end of the world, alleluia." In the time between the ascension and the second coming, then, our task is to recognize Christ all around us, especially in the poor; honoring them is indeed a key part of our Gospel mission.

Jesus commissioned followers to proclaim the Good News and to follow him, on our earthly journey and to our heavenly destination. He's far from gone! He is among us and in us. We are reflections of his presence in the world.
