A NOTE OF

Thank you for your kind remembrance of my birthday! I appreciate your generous gifts and your prayers and thoughtfulness. May God bless you and yours in this festive season. Let us keep each other in prayer. Peace. Fr. Jim Mickus

If you missed the Children's Christmas Pageant this year, I'm so sorry. You missed a beautiful evening. The children and the musicians did an amazing job of retelling the story of the birth of Jesus. The children were of course adorable and played their parts beautifully. Stephanie and Kerry played the music like they always do, incredible and Abbi sang like an Angel. Thanks to each of you. Special thanks to Shelby for running the projector, Mike & Marfreda for feeding the children, Robin and Kelly for taking care of the Angel costumes. Chuck and Bobby for setting up the stable and the parents for all their help but mainly for allowing their children to be a part of the production. To all of you who brought snacks, thank you, the kids and I very much enjoyed them. I know many of you have heard me say "It takes a village," and it does, and we have the best one right here at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church. Thank you. Betty Keating

The Archdiocese has given us access to Formed. It is like Netflix but with Catholic content like movies, books, educational videos and series. There are special ones just for kids. The following are log in instructions. Once you create your login you can use apps (applications) on your smart phones and tablets. It is easy to use and fun. The quality of the videos beautiful. Stewardship Thought Baptism of Our Lord

Jesus, whom God called “my beloved Son,” is also the “servant” of whom Isaiah speaks in the first reading. We who are baptized in Christ must follow His example and use our time and resources in the service of God and neighbor. See Luke 3:22
